What are we looking for?

We are looking for an innovative, inspirational ELSA (Emotional Literacy Support Assistant) & Home School Link Worker who puts the welfare and progress of children at the centre of everything they do and are able to support our children in reaching their full potential.

This post will suit a person who is prepared to throw themselves into our busy school community with commitment and enthusiasm. The successful candidate will be flexible, able to work on their own initiative and keen for their next challenge. As the role entails assisting with the supervision of children, reliability and good timekeeping are essential.

The ELSA & Home School Link Worker plays a key role in supporting pupils' emotional wellbeing, social development, attendance and engagement with learning. The post holder will provide targeted emotional literacy interventions, build positive relationships with families and act as a bridge between home and school to ensure pupils receive the support they need to thrive academically, socially and emotionally. This role will have oversight of Speech and Language at the school, leading sessions and liaising with external professionals to ensure a high-quality SALT provision programme.

We are an inclusive school who live out our values of Compassion, Respect, Responsibility and Courage.
