Author visit – Thursday 17th October

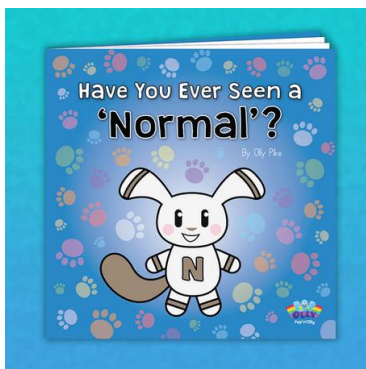

Good morning,

We are delighted to be welcoming the award-winning author, Olly Pike to Halsford Park on Thursday 17th October for the afternoon. As part of the visit, Olly will do an assembly with all children across the school and present his new book, Have You Seen a 'Normal'?. He will share his experience of being an author and what inspired him to write his book. Hopefully, this visit will leave your children feeling eager to create their own books!

The children will also have the chance to quiz Olly about his work and life.

At the end of the day, books will be sold at the price of £5. This includes a 20% discount and Olly will be available for signed copies and pictures. You will be able to pay with card on the day. This will take place on the KS2 playground. In adverse weather conditions, we will move this to 1GS – entering through the KS1 playground.

Alternatively, if you would rather buy the book online, you can go on their site <https://www.popnolly.com/> and use the code HALSFORD24 which will be 20% off any book online and will last for a week from the date of their visit.

Have You Ever Seen a 'Normal'?

A whimsical journey through the notion of normality. Through enchanting rhymes and captivating illustrations, this book challenges the concept of what it means to be 'normal'. From houses to families, heights to feelings, author Olly Pike explores the vibrant and diverse tapestry of human existence.

Kind regards,

Mr. Garcia
