Dear Parents and Carers,

Update to the recording of reading and homework

I am writing to let you know about a change to how we record reading at home, as well as homework.

This year, we will no longer be using individual reading journals to record reading. Instead, all homework, including reading, will now be recorded in one homework book.

For children in Early Years, a separate book will be provided specifically for recording reading. We hope this change will make it easier to keep track of reading alongside other home learning, and will simplify things for everybody.

Reading regularly with your child not only builds their confidence and skills, but helps foster a genuine love of reading that will stay with them for life. Please continue to read with your child regularly and note down what they've read.

If you have any questions about this change, please don't hesitate to speak to your child's class teacher.

Thank you for your continued support with reading at home.

Kind regards,

Mrs Goodwin
