Pride Month:

Celebrating Uniqueness

Pride Month encourages children to feel proud of who they are and celebrate their unique qualities safely.

Rainbow Symbolism

The rainbow represents diversity and unity, showing many people coming together like a school community.

Core Values of Pride

Pride focuses on kindness, fairness, friendship, respect, and making everyone feel welcome.

Interactive Learning

Asking questions like 'What makes you special?' helps children engage and understand Pride positively.

What Is Pride Month?

Support and Respect for All

Pride Month encourages respect for everyone, regardless of how they look or who they love.

Fairness and Equality

Pride Month stands for fairness, equal rights, and standing against bullying and exclusion.

Building Empathy and Kindness

Activities about kindness and friendship help children understand and include others.

Why Do We Celebrate Pride?

PROUDLY ACHIEVED

- Remembering Courageous Efforts

Pride honors the bravery of those who fought for equal treatment and kindness in the past.

- Celebrating Diversity

Pride celebrates differences in culture, interests, and families, making the world more interesting.

- Kindness and Fairness

Pride promotes kindness, fairness, and making schools and communities safer and happier places.

- Joyful Celebration

Pride is a joyful event with parades, music, and bright colors, reinforcing positive messages.

Why Is Pride Important?

Promotes Respect and Understanding

Pride teaches children that differences are normal and valuable, fostering kindness and reducing bullying.

Supports Emotional Wellbeing

Feeling safe to be oneself is crucial for happiness, and Pride helps create that supportive environment.

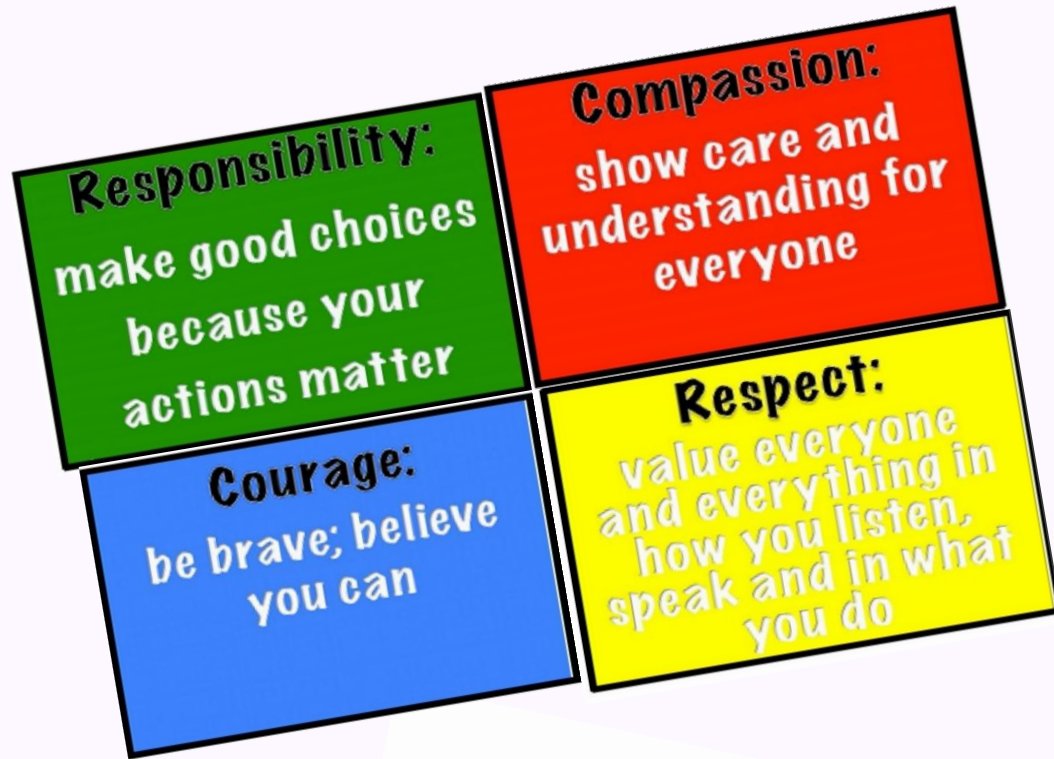

Encourages Inclusion and Belonging

Pride links to school values of kindness and inclusion, ensuring everyone feels accepted and part of the community.

Interactive Learning Opportunities

Using scenarios, children learn to show kindness and responsibility, applying Pride values in daily life.

Linking Pride to Our School Values

- Respect in Diversity

Respect means treating everyone kindly and listening to others, even if they are different from us.

- Responsibility and Safety

Responsibility involves standing up for others and helping create a safe school environment.

- Courage to Be Yourself

Courage means being brave to be yourself and support friends who feel worried or left out.

- Compassion and Care

Compassion means caring about others' feelings and offering help when someone is upset.
